Chairman Pagel informs the Board that the Fest of All is looking for a liaison to attend the June 2, 2010 meeting to be held at the Hu Ke Lau. At that meeting the vendors will be present and should have their applications with them. If not applications can be handed out. We will need the Workers Comp Insurance policy and the correct fee. The Fest of All has an old application on their web site even though they have had an e-mail with a current application sent to them. Commissioner Goulette states he will be the liaison. All the Commissioners will attend the meeting that night.

Chairman Pagel informs the Board that they have 2 police reports in their packets, one for Rollin' Roc Tavern and one for Windsor Cafe. Commissioner Grise makes a motion to bring these establishments in for hearing in June. Commissioner Derosia seconds. Motion approved 5-0.

Also Curry Leaf Cafe has not returned the Common Vic application after several attempts. I have sent a letter to the Building Commissioner to start the proceedings to revoke the Certificate of Occupancy. He has sent them a letter, still no response. I spoke to Joe Viamari today to take the next step. He is going to do a site visit and if we have no response he will have to start court proceedings.

Also all inactive licenses will be brought in for a hearing at the June meeting to review their status.

ABCC Approvals: New Officers/Directors and Manager: Portuguese Club, 147 Exchange St

Atty. Rooke thanks Chairman Pagel for his diligence, professionalism and successful tenure as Chairman of the License Commission for the past several years. This is Chairman Pagels' last meeting with the Commission.
